

Agreement of Affiliation between St. Thomas University of New Brunswick*

WHEREAS the Royal Commission on recommended that The University of New Brunswick and St. Thomas University into an agreement of affiliation;

AND WHEREAS The University of New Brunswick and St. Thomas University are affiliation.

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH as follows:

1. The University of New Brunswick will convey to St. Thomas University the leasehold of the lands shown on the plan hereto annexed. As additional lands are required by St. Thomas University, the University of New Brunswick will

2. All buildings constructed on the lands to be conveyed to St. Thomas University shall conform with the architectural design being developed by The University of New

3. The University of New Brunswick will permit St. Thomas University to use the streets and roads of The University of New Brunswick for the regulations of The University of New Brunswick shall such use be intended to create a public right-of-way or rights-of-way.

and to avoid duplication, St. Thomas University will avail itself of any services and facilities that can be supplied by The University of New Brunswick such as central heating, street lighting and snow removal. The cost of providing such services and facilities shall be mutually agreed upon, due consideration to be given to any increase in costs to The University of New Brunswick for providing

5. (a) St. Thomas University shall have the use of The University of New Brunswick Library, book other facilities subject to the regulations of The University of New Brunswick. Consideration shall be given to the requirements of St. Thomas University in addition to The University of New Brunswick library without charge to St. Thomas University.

New Brunswick in the City of Saint John

(b) The University of New Brunswick shall have the use of the library of St. Thomas University.

(c) Students enrolled at one of the affiliated universities may take courses provided by the other University; the crediting of such leading to degrees granted by St.

(h) Without restricting the

(b) control the content and administration of its programs leading to the granting of degrees by St. Thomas University; and other students at The University of New Brunswick shall be permitted to take philosophy and religion courses at St. Thomas

(c) grant degrees at the baccalaureate level in arts and education, other than physical education.

Universities for credit with the approval of The University of New Brunswick.

7. St. Thomas University agrees to hold in abeyance its other degree incorporation and amendments with

(c) St. Thomas University shall have the right to teach for credit courses in medical ethics and psychology to medical students enrolled in the Bachelor of operate in the development of summer school and extension courses.

of THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

9. St. Thomas University shall have the right to offer its courses through the facilities of The University of

(d) Fees for courses taken by students at the other University shall be mutually agreed upon and shall be paid by the University in which the student is enrolled.

St. Thomas University shall have shown on the plan attached hereto

Brunswick. The fee for such shall be the same as that charged students respective corporate seals to be hereunto affixed under the hands of their proper signing officers the day and year first hereinabove written.

Brunswick.

12. The Universities shall both remain responsible for their own business administration and financing, with suitable arrangements to be made between them for compensation when additional costs are incurred by one University at the request of the other.

13. The two Universities hereby undertake to develop full liaison with one another in the exercise of the powers, rights and privileges conferred upon them by their separate Acts of Incorporation and in the use of their physical and cultural facilities, towards the promotion of the interests of higher education in the Province of New Brunswick.

14. This Agreement shall become effective the first day of July, A.D. 1963 and shall continue in force and effect until such time as St. Thomas

*University of New Brunswick Act under