

English as a Second Language (ESL)

ESL courses are designed for students who are not native English speakers. These courses provide the necessary language skills to succeed in college-level coursework. Students who complete these courses may be eligible for academic credit.

ESL courses are offered in a variety of formats, including classroom instruction, self-paced learning, and hybrid formats. Students should consult with their advisor to determine the best course option for their needs.

ESL courses are available to students who are currently enrolled in a degree program at St. Thomas University. Students who are not currently enrolled may also be eligible to enroll in an ESL course.
