

Policy on Animals on Campus

the person may apply for an exception to this requirement. In cases where an exception has been granted to the requirement that a person maintain physical control of an animal, the person must maintain control of the animal through another means approved by the University.

Note The Animals on Campus Policy was developed with the assistance of resources available from the New Brunswick Human Rights Commission (e.g. Guideline on Accommodating People with Service Animals).